

libero Mam™

Libero MAM is a digital archive platform for processing media assets according to their filters and metadata. This digital archive system, which enables the storage, search, and sharing of digital assets on a scalable and flexible platform, is designed for digital archive users and publishers.

- Powerful search engine
- Stable for 24/7 operations
- SD/HD/UHD/4K support
- CPU, RAM, and storage usage monitoring
- Supports video, images, audio, and more file formats
- Multiple send-to options according to customizable workflows
- Flexible metadata creation and search
- Full-text search capabilities
- Auto-locating metadata timecode in the timeline
- Multiple thumbnails on search results
- Simultaneous proxy generation with defined formats
- Security restrictions and user access rights
- NAS, DAS, and SAN storage units support
- Virtual storages support
- Image and Office documents support
- Multi-language support
- Storage load balancing by regulating multiple storage and data traffic
- Trim and export between marked IN/OUT points even for growing files